I have all the information.	The information is here for us to share.
It is my job to transmit knowledge to you.	I am not the fount of all knowledge.
I am responsible for your learning.	You are responsible for your learning.
It is my job to make sure that you work.	I am here to facilitate your learning by providing resources and support.
I have the expertise to make the right decisions for your learning.	I trust that you will take responsibility for your own learning.
